

LOVE'S YOUNG DREAMBLOOMS AGAIN

Des Moines, June 25.—(INS)— An old soldiers' fife and drum corps helped pep things up at the reception tendered Captain Joseph Chedester, 81, and his bride, Mrs Annie Winslow Hayes Chedester 73, here.

The captain displayed his youthfulness by doing a cross between the Charleston and cake-walk as the fifers struck up "Turkey in the Straw."

And Mrs. Chedester told her guests she felt "30 years younger than I am."

The couple first met five years ago at a Grand Army Encampment here. They renewed acquaintances three years later. Three weeks ago, the groom left to make his home at Redlands, Calif., and incidently to make Mrs. Hayes his bride.
They came back to Des Moines for the wedding.
